

I talk to dead people. It is not a frightening thing. It is interesting that those who were done away with most foully do not speak of revenge or of terror. They are always calm. I do not see them with their flesh in tatters or their guts spilling from their body cavities. If I see them at all it is glimpses of faces, but never anything terrible. When I happen to meet dead people in my dreams they are always whole and healthy. Terror, fear, anger, revenge are all emotions that stop with the last breath you take in your lifetime.

I don't feel that I talk to all dead people, just those who want to talk to me. And, not all do. Or can? That is what I don't know. My access to that other world may be so limited that my frequency only reaches a certain span

Talking to Spirit concerns itself with what my Guides and other Folk in Spirit want to talk about. Also, there are those things that I feel I've learned from them that have made a difference for me personally. I figure I'm run of the mill normal. If what they have said helped me maybe it will help others too. That's why I talk about these things. Also, if I can in any way help to make the world a better place diminishing hate, prejudice, bigotry, injustice and narrow minded thinking I'll give it my best shot.

This website contains a large amount of psychic channeled information. This information has come from a group I refer to as The Guides. Much of it is from Seth, but there is a lot from other Folk in Spirit who remain, even for me much of the time, anonymous. Suffice it to say the Spirit Group is large and fluid, members coming and going over time. But, Seth, my main guide, has remained throughout.

Why is it a person would want to spend time listening to somebody they can't even see? Face it, they are invisible. Also, they are dead. Come to think of it, the last time they were alive people were probably wearing togas, so you'd figure they might not be up on the latest trends of style, if that is what is important to you.

I'll tell you why these Folk in Spirit are worth listening to. It's because what these Spirit Guides say to me rings true. What they say is helpful and gives me and others hope. The things they say really make you think. These Spirit Guides have been a source of encouragement for me since February 12, 1993, when my planchette finally zoomed off the Ouija board I had been trying to get to work, without success, for the prior 6 months. And, by the way, the Spirit Guides do, truly, have a sense of style.

I've been channeling Seth since that day in 1993. He was the first Spirit Guide who came to teach me the in's and out's of psychic channeling. After a year of speaking with him I began to slowly move out into a psychic realm of Spirit populated by a great number of Guides and Interesting Personalities to talk to.

I like to channel. I could easily be happy spending my days psychically channeling Folks in Spirit. It's sort of like being the microphone at a seminar or a lounge act. I get involved in that I'm right there, but I also try to stay out of the way of what is being said so I don't disrupt or skew it in any way. I've got to tell you that being a psychic channel at work has been very interesting. "Add that up again, please." So, they help me with the more mundane of tasks too, for which I've always been grateful. Spiritual medium, dream interpreter, psychic medium, psychic readings, clairvoyant, counsellor, Support, guidance, Karen Ellyard, Gold Coast, Queensland, Australia, Perth, Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide, Darwin, Hobart, Brisbane, Reiki, Angel, Meditation and teaching

I've been a psychic channel long enough to realize that there are some areas I'll just never be real clear about...just ask one of the Spirit Guides about dieting and you'll get the really skewed version of Spiritual Dieting Techniques. But, from what people have said I think I can deliver a pretty clear rendition of what Spirit wants to talk about when it is something other than diets.
